EASTER SYMBOLS—New born chicks and eggs which will produce more of them were photographed by Staff Photographer Debbie Conkey while on an assignment. Chicks were hatched by Mother Hen at the Peg Tompkins home on Buena Vista. Nest was prepared for the big event in raised planter. The Mother had to be lifted off the chicks in order to take the photo. For a critical look at the practice of giving chicks and other animals as Easter gifts see accompanying article.

Pets NOT the Best Gift

[In the event the photo of the chicks on this page gives a reader an idea for an Easter gift, this article contains information on that subject. Editor].

Every Easter season thousands of rabbits, ducks and chicks suffer the cruel fate of becoming household pets—for a brief and tearful week or two.

Few survive their life as living toys!

The California Veterinary Medical Association, and local veterinarians throughout the state, have again issued a warning about this annual practice that so often ends in a trauma for all concerned.

Those animals not crushed to death with love or overfed with kindness often wind up in animal shelters with no one to adopt them and they must be destroyed.

Dr. Richard B. Fink of Whittier, president of the state-wide veterinary medical association, notes:

"Most of these Easter pets are outdoor animals and they cannot be housebroken. Many are disease carriers, for both humans and regular household pets. A chocolate rabbit or a candy chicken would still keep the fun of Easter without the cruelty or psychological trauma from a needless death of these farmtype animals".

The National Center for Disease Control in Atlanta, and other Public Health authorities, have also warned that both children and adults who come in close contact with these outdoor animals may be exposed to salmonellosis, a severe gastro-intestinal infection.

While this is rarely fatal, it can cause hospitalization, as well as other medical treatment.

Even regular household pets, such as cats and dogs, can contact diseases from these living "Easter toys", causing additional concern and expense of treatment.

Make it a Happy Easter by not giving live "toys" such as rabbits or chicks.

Sentencing Due For Local Man

Sentencing of William Floyd Curling of Yorba Linda who was charged by Placentia police with criminal infractions of assault and battery on police, resisting arrest and reckless driving, will be handed down by Judge David Bach on April 28 in North Orange County Community Court.

Curling pled no contest at the trial.

The court case resulted from a wild chase by Placentia police in pursuit of Curling, driving a 1976 yellow Cadillac on October 4, 1976. Curling, headed for home north on Rose Drive was estimated by police to be driving approximately 90 miles an hour.

When Curling was finally stopped by police it was alleged that he refused to alight from his automobile, would not take a field sobriety test and would not turn off his car's engine.

The driver then allegedly drove on in his car, brushing off the police officers. With more police arriving at the scene, they pursued him on foot and in vehicle to his home hearby.

Refused entrance, the police nevertheless pursued efforts, according to reports, to locate their escapee. Curling reportedly had removed his clothing and was taking a shower.

Eventually nine Placentia Police officers, including one woman, had advanced to the home to apprehend the wanted man. Officers were finally able to extricate him from the shower after a considerable struggle, and transport him to the Orange County jail.

Curling, his wife and daughter had brought claims of $11.5 million over the episode, charging that Curling has been embarrassed over police faking him forcibly from the shower and transporting him

Assistance for Andy

Several weeks ago the Yorba Linda Girl Scouts held a raffle and bake sale as a fund raiser for the family of Andy Smith who was seriously hurt in December.

Delicious home-baked goods were donated by leaders and many mothers of Girl Scouts. We genuinely appreciate the huge amount of cookies, cakes and goodies that were donated along with homemade items that were raffled off.

These included two bottle dolls, a sterling silver pin, a macrame pot hanger, two beautifully decorated cakes and a plant in a container made by a Girl Scout. One lady donated $10 to the raffle and we are very happy to announce she won one of the dolls.

We are delighted to announce that $332 was collected, which has been used to purchase gas coupons to help the Smith Family's mounting gas expenses traveling to Downey every day to visit Andy. It was stated by Shirley Smith that they use around $90 worth of gas each month.

The people who donated items were terrific; the response was outstanding! And, again, the community came through with flying colors! A big "Thank you" to all of you!

Nixon Park Gets Reprieve

The future of Nixon Park tottered on shaky legs at Monday nights City Council meeting, almost expired completely a time or two, but was finally given a reprieve until it can be further discussed in relation to the city's overall plan for parks.

That discussion will take place next Monday night when the Council meets with the Capital Improvements Committee. No decision will be made until the second meeting in June when it is expected to have a full five member council in attendance.

Councilman Henry Wedaa was absent Monday and Councilman Whit Cromwell has been excused from the next two meetings.

Before the council was consideration of first reading of an ordinance establishing a general obligation Bond Issue Election on November 8.

Councilman Dale Chaput was all in favor of killing the election proposal. He said he agreed with the original stand of Cromwell that "there is no public interest and the people are not in favor of paying that kind of money for it".

The bond issue is pegged at $925,000. Technically, it is not tied to acquisition of Nixon Park. However, it was proposed after Southern Pacific Railroad, owners of the property who lease it to the Chamber of Commerce, revealed plans for developing it and surrounding railroad property.

Mayor Doug Groot contended that the people "should make the decision on whether the park site should be bought. He had the support of Councilman Irwin Fried. Groot also wanted Wedaa to have an opportunity to state his views.

Several motions were made by Cromwell aimed at accomplishing Chaput's desire to forego the bond issue election. However, they never got to a vote as it was decided to further discuss the subject and postpone action until the second June meeting.

Earlier, Bill Ross had offered a plan which he said resulted from his own study of the situation. Ross said he has explored the possibility of utilizing property across the street from Nixon Park that could provide a two and one-half acre park site that would tie in with the existing trail and "cost greatly less than the Nixon Park".

Ross added that he "couldn't see voting for the bond issue". The same thought was expressed by Rudy Castro interim chairman of the Yorba Linda Homeowners Association during the bond issue discussion.

Ross' plan was accepted and will be studied at Monday night's workshop.

When it became apparent that any

Contract Awarded by Council

BY JIM ARKISON

If you think the inconvenience the periodic spurts of undergrounding utilities on Main Street has been upsetting wait until the massive project of completely rejuvenating the street gets underway.

"It's going to be a mess," City Engineer Roy Stephenson stated bluntly. But, it will not last as long as many projects of this type have in this and other cities.

The relatively speedy work is due to a very tight schedule which must be adhered to to meet the 90 day requirement from date of notification by the federal government. Thus, the project will get underway on April 18 and be concluded about July 1.

The project is being partially funded by the federal government under its Public Works Program. The city is getting $126,000 from the government of which $17,000 will go for engineering fees. To bring the work portion of the project up to the allowable amount the city will spend almost $17,500 out of gas tax funds.

The bid award was made by City Council Monday night to Certified General Engineering Contractors, Inc., of Orange. The grant figure was achieved by deleting some $34,400 worth of items from the contract. The items are primarily for landscaping and street furniture.

Stephenson explained that by utilizing the City's Public Works force to install landscaping and street furniture a considerable savings can be realized. Materials, he said, would amount to only about $3,500. Stephenson stressed that every attempt will be made to ease the burden to be placed upon merchants and the public while construction is going on. He said an information meeting is planned with the merchants before the project starts so that it can be fully explained. In addition, liason will be maintained during construction by a committee of three representing the city, the contractor and the

Eriksen Resigns from PC

Accepted with regrets by the City Council Monday night was the resignation of Chairman Howard Eriksen from the Planning Commission, effective May 1.

In his letter Eriksen explained that his job responsibilities made the action necessary. He is being transferred by his employer, Pacific Telephone Company, to a new assignment in Auburn, near Sacramento.

Eriksen said: "I appreciate the opportunity of having worked for and served not only the members of the City Council but the citizens of Yorba Linda and I will always hold the City of Yorba Linda in the highest esteem as the greatest city I have ever lived in".

He has been a member of the commission for about two years.

Council said it would accept applications for the vacancy on the Planning Commission immediately and up to April 15. Simonian was directed to contact those persons who had applied for appointment when the last vacancy occured. If they are still desirous of serving they will not be required to file new applications.

Application forms may be obtained in the City Hall.

Animal Control Questionnnaire

In cooperation with the Orange County Animal Shelter, the STAR is making available to the public this questionnaire on horse problems. The information being sought by the agency applies to the hundreds of horse owners in Yorba Linda and adjacent County territory.

The purpose of this questionnaire is to find out from the general public and private horse owners what problems, if any, horses create in their neighborhood.

The results of this questionaire, which will be kept confidential, will be analyzed and may be used to develop legislation to eliminate problems created by horses in the private sector.

Questionnaires should be returned postmarked no later than April 6, (or 10 days from publication date) to be included in this study.

This questionnaire applies to all residents of unincorporated county areas and incorporated areas other than Costa Mesa, Garden Grove, Irvine, Laguna Beach, La Habra, Newport Beach, Santa Ana, Seal Beach, and Westminster.

merchants.

One major aspect of the project which will get priority will be the tearing up and repaving of the street. Stephenson said this will be taken care of first and is expected to be completed in 30 to 45 days from the outset.

During the project the parking lots on either side of City Hall will be available to the public. Municipal employees will use fringe area parking lots, such as the one at the library. Also being explored is a possible entrance on to Main Street from School Street.

The City Engineer said that the public is welcome to view the plans and the specifications at the City Hall, at the Library and in the office of the STAR.

A look at the plans reveals that Main Street will have a totally different appearance. Red inlaid brick will be the main theme for the sidewalks. This will be interspersed with brushed concrete, brushed in such a fashion as to create different patterns. The brick, too, will be laid in various configurations for contrasting effect.

Brick will be utilized for the five cross walks, some of which will go directly across the street and others set at angles.

The sidewalks will be constructed to provide a curvelinear effect. Some portions will jut out into the street while other parts will be recessed. These areas will be landscaped with grass, shrubs and trees.

Heavy ground cover will be supplemented with groupings, at various points along the street, of evergreen pear, California sycamore and Valencia orange trees.

Perhaps the most dramatic innovation will be the Main Street "entryway" at Imperial. On the northwest corner there will be a circular brick and masonry sign rising to a height of four feet. It will have "Main Street" lettered on it in two places so that it can be seen from the east and west approaches.

With all utility lines undergrounded the overhead will be uncluttered. Replacing the strictly functional poles now in place, will be old fashioned street lights with milk white glass globes. There will be a total of nine of these staggered down each side of the street.

Adding to this effect will be several accent lights known as "bollards". They will be three and one-half feet high and be located strategically among the landscaping, mainly at crosswalk locations.

Benches will be placed along the sidewalks as well as portable planters and attractive trash receptacles. All landscaping will be watered by fully automated sprinklers. Each tree well will have a drip system.

There will be 47 angle parking spaces along the curb line, about the same number as now exist. In between some of the spaces planters will be spotted for effect. The sidewalks will accommodate 10 wheelchair ramps for the convenience of the handicapped.

It is the hope of the Chamber of Commerce that this phase will be followed by a facelifting of store fronts along Main Street to conform with the adopted plan of achieving an Early California appearance. Many merchants have indicated plans to renovate their places of business.

Little Bits

Miss Yorba Linda, Laura Oberjuerge, will compete tonight [Wednesday] in the Miss Orange County Pageant, with the opportunity of appearing in the Miss California Pageant and possibly the Miss America Pageant. The area event will be held at the Garden Grove High School, Stanford at Euclid, Garden Grove. Fifteen city Queens will vie for the county crown. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

A 13 year old Bernardo Yorba Jr. High student was taken into custody at the school last week when she was found to be wearing jewelry reportedly taken in a recent burglary. Brea Police said the jewelry had been reported stolen by Jack Guinn, 19701 Ridgewood Place on March 21.

Assemblyman Bruce Nestande, who represents Yorba Linda in Sacramento, has been spending this week meeting with officals from area cities. He met with school district authorities on Monday, officials of cities on Tuesday, community college officials and the Orange County Chiefs' of Police Association today [Wednesday].

George Johnson, 80, 18841 Via Serena, Yorba Linda, returned home one day last week to surprise three young men in the act of burglarizing his residence. The men fled but Johnson described them to police who subsequently made one arrest. Taken into custody was John Green, 22, Placentia, in a residence at Lakeview and Yorba Linda. The other two men are being sought. Johnson said a $350 antique pistol was missing.

The Volunteers in Child Abuse information meeting scheduled for today [Wednesday] at the Orange County Public Library headquarters has been cancelled. Persons interested in the subject may attend the next meeting on April 13 at 10 a.m. in the same location.

The Directory of Yorba Linda Organizations is now available at City Hall, the Library, the Chamber of Commerce and the STAR. This useful booklet, compiled and printed by the Yorba Linda Service League for the tenth year, is a handy reference for addresses and phone numbers of local churches, schools, and service organizations.

Several items of new business are on the agenda for the Thursday, Apr. 7 meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Yorba Linda Library District. National Library Week, an energy conservation proposal by Edison, the adult study room, universal borrowing survey, a city history book and the California Missions brochure will be discussed.

The County Board of Supervisors has postponed action on Yorba Linda projects, as well as funding requests from other cities. Yorba Linda had requested $11,673 to fund one position to improve cashiering service, $10,652 for one position in clerical support, 12 positions and $163,373 for a landscape maintenance program. The jobs would be funded under the CETA program.

Local residents are invited to attend a public hearing on April 14 at 9 a.m. on the possible uses of the county's Federal Revenue Sharing Entitlement Funds for the 1977-78 fiscal year. The hearing will be held in County office, 515 N. Sycamore, Room 503, Santa Ana. Comments may be oral or in writing.

District to Save Money

The Yorba Linda County Water District will be saving over $500 a year by joining with other governmental agencies by jointly publishing the prevailing wages to be paid by contractors working for the districts or cities during the year.

The League of California Cities recently offered this service to member special districts and its city members. This was because of the new law known as AB 2363 that requires the annual publication of the prevailing wages that must be used as a minimum by private contractors performing work for governmental agencies.

"Employees for the District are kept to a minimum" said Fred G. Clodt, president of the Yorba Linda County Water District Board. "We do use private contractors where their special, costly equipment and expertise is needed. With this new cooperative effort by the districts and cities we will all save money. This program will cost the District about $75 a year compared to the almost $600 a year it has spent in the past."

Used Books Solicited

Spring cleaning provides the opportunity to weed out unused books that have been stashed away in attics and closets.

The annual used book sale sponsored by the Friends of the Yorba Linda District Library is set for Saturday, May 7. Members are busy sorting and pricing items that have been donated.

President Pat Baur reminds everyone that recycled books provide revenue for the Friends' service projects to the community through the library.

She requests that donations of books, magazines and records be brought to the library, 18262 Lemon Drive, Yorba Linda.

Anyone wanting books to be picked up can call Virginia Kroenlein at 528-8677.

vote would be split two to two, a spokesman for Shappel Industries requested a continuance on a hearing amending development plan standards of a zone change in connection with the firms development plans for East Lake Village.

Council members had a difficult time separating this request from allied business regarding tentative tract maps for the same area. Fried and Chaput were highly critical of development plans, especially the 45 foot width of lots and parking requirements.

Groot and Cromwell sided with the developer. However, at the latter's request, the matter was continued until the next meeting.

City Attorney Leonard Hampel suggested that the Attorney General's opinion regarding amending the Uniform Building Code would possibly entail the city entering litigation.

Hampel explained that the opinion required changes to be based on geographical and topographical but not man-made considerations. The city had proposed the changes to make residences burglar proof by installing security measures such as deadbolt locks. The Attorney General's position was based on changes adding to the cost of construction.

Hampel's explanation drew arguments from Chaput but it was finally decided to continue the matter until the second meeting in May.

Renewed efforts will be made by council members to bolster the public funding of the proposed George Machado Memorial. It is planned to build a memorial to the late Mayor and Councilman.

City Manager Art Simonian said that slightly less than $500 towards the goal of $2,500 has been collected. His remark that the city might study the matter at budget sessions met with protests.

Councilmen, abetted by Castro who offered the YLHA as the sponsors of a fund raiser, noted that Machado would not want a memorial to be funded by the government.

Several ideas were advanced in response to Mrs. Maralee Otto's letter to council on establishing a local Boys' Club. It was finally decided to invite Mrs. Otto to budget study sessions and also to become involved on committees that study such subjects.

Former Mayor and Planning Commissioner Carolyn Ewing was presented with a resolution commending her for her service to the city.

Property Taxes Due

Orange County Tax Collector-Treasurer, Robert L. Citron, wishes to remind property taxpayers that their second installment property tax payment is due April 10.

Since April 10th falls on a Sunday, they have until April 11th to have the payment either in his office or postmarked by that date. If postmarked after that date, a 6% penalty plus $3 costs will apply.

Citron stated that property taxpayers should not get their April 10th property tax payment confused with State and Federal income tax payments, which are due by April 15th.

He stated that in the past some taxpayers have been confused and have submitted property tax payments by April 15th and thought they would not be delinquent.

There may be some homeowners, stated Citron, who acquired their property after the original tax bill was mailed on October 15th.

The first installment may have been taken care of in escrow by the escrow company and the homeowner may be unaware that it is his responsibility to pay the SECOND INSTALLMENT.

Citron reminds new homeowners who acquired property on or after October 1, 1976 and who are not paying impounds into a lender's account and who have NOT received a copy of their tax bill, that they should call his office prior to April 11th (834-3411) to obtain information concerning the amount of SECOND INSTALLMENT taxes they may owe.

Zavala in Critical Condition

Salvador Zavala, Placentia resident and veteran in the service of education, was listed in critical condition at St. Jude's Hospital in Fullerton this week following six hours of brain surgery.

The surgery removed a tumerous growth.

Zavala, who is the only person to serve on two local school board simultaneously, is a trustee of the Placentia Unified School District and the North Orange County Community College District for this area.

Friends and relatives report that Zavala had entered a hospital for tests a week ago and a tumor had been diagnosed. He was immediately admitted for surgery.

The veteran school board member regained consciousness following the operation and spoke with friends. However, complications later developed and he has since been listed as critical and under care in the intensive care ward of St. Jude.

His wife, Mrs. Doris Zavala and their six children have been at the hospital with Zavala since his illness and his mother, Mrs. Aurelia Zavala, who is 86 also has been a visitor. Zavala, however, has not regained consciousness, it was reported.

Zavala, who has been a contributing spokesman in local education circles, was one of the individuals who established Rosary High School, St. Joseph's Catholic School and the North Orange County Community College District.

He has been a member of PUSD since 1956 and was recently reelected to another four year term on the NOCCCD board.

Employee Proposal Hearing

Public hearing on a proposal for an employment contract presented by classified (non-teaching) employees of the Placentia Unified School District will be at 8 p.m. Monday, April 11, during a meeting of the board of education at 1301 E. Orangethorpe Ave.

Copies of the 51-page document presented by the local chapter of California School Employees Association (CSEA) to trustees are available in all district schools and public libraries in Placentia and Yorba Linda.

The contract proposal includes a pay increase of 9.15 per cent for the 1977-78 school year. The total amount is divided into 6.1 per cent cost of living increase and 3.05 per cent for additional fringe benefits, including medical plan, life insurance, dental and vision plans for employees and dependents.

Presentation of the proposed contract is the first step in the collective bargaining process mandated for school districts by state law last year.

Community members wishing to comment on the classified employees' proposal may do so during the public hearing Monday.

Drapkin Services

Memorial services were held Monday for a Yorba Linda man who ended his own life by jumping from the fifth floor of the Humanities Building at Cal State Fullerton on April 1.

Services for Richard A. Drapkin, 31, were held at Pacific Memorial Park in Newport Beach.

He was employed in the Instructional Media Center (IMC) at the college. A well known figure on campus, Mr. Drapkin had both bachelor's and master's degrees from CSUF in political science.

He had also been an honor student at Fullerton College where his father, Herbert Drapkin, is a biology professor. His mother is a teacher at Sonora High.

Active in environmental affairs he had done research at Cal Tech. He was an intern on environmental affairs for former Congressman Richard Hanna. In addition, Mr. Drapkin was secretary of the CSUF Alumni Association.

The eulogy at the services was delivered by Dr. Allen Zeltzer of Yorba Linda, director of IMC and Mr. Drapkin's department head. A poem was read by Jane Armstrong, acting associate dean of instruction and Rabbi Hiam Asa of Congregation Beth Tikvah officiated.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Drapkin is survived by two brothers, Steve of Santa Monica and Larry of Santa Barbara.

Freshmen Orientation

A special high school orientation program will be conducted this summer for entering ninth grade students in the Fullerton Union High School District.

All freshmen are expected to attend this one-week, two-hour per day course which will be held throughout the summer at each of the District's high school campuses.

The new course is designed to orient the students with campus facilities and personnel, rules and regulations, and academic and social expectations.

It also provides the opportunity to test the student for proper class placement and allows sufficient time for counseling the student on his her educational program.

The course is being introduced this summer in the hopes of eliminating any confusion and misunderstanding ninth graders often have at the beginning of the new school year.

Students enrolled in the orientation program will also gain one-half unit of credit toward graduation. Registration will be conducted at the time of summer school class enrollment.

Yorba Linda parents should contact the Troy High at 879-7880 for exact course dates, registration deadlines or other details.

New B of A Branch

Bank of America will open a new branch in Yorba Linda this summer, it was announced by H. H. Jackson, senior vice president and head of the bank's Orange County-Los Angeles Coast Region.

Jackson said the bank has acquired a 54,450 square-foot site on the south side of Yorba Linda Boulevard just east of Fairmont Blvd., and will begin operations there in June from one of its modular "Bankmobile" facilities.

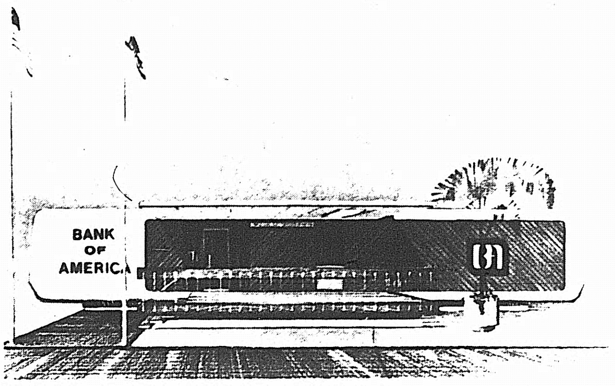
Plans for a permanent building at the site are currently being developed, he said, with construction scheduled to begin in October this year.

The "Bankmobile" is a 600 square-foot modular office with a contemporary-styled exterior that provides a three-station teller line and all normal bank services except safe deposit facilities.

Currently being used at about 10 locations throughout Southern California, the units can be assembled and installed on the site within a matter of just a few weeks, Jackson said.

The proposed permanent building, according to initial plans, will be a one-story 7,700 square-foot structure costing $408,500 with a 10-station teller line, a six-desk officers' platform area, large safe deposit facilities, exterior walk-up and drive-up teller units and a 62-space parking lot.

The new office will be called the East Yorba Linda branch and will be B of A's second in Yorba Linda and 81st in Orange County.



NEW YORBA LINDA Bank of America Branch at Yorba Linda and Fairmont will open in June. This temporary facility will be used until completion of the $408,500 permanent structure on the site.

Bill on Marriages

Assemblyman Bruce Nestande (R-Orange) has introduced legislation (AB 607) which will clarify the statute regarding marriages. Nestande indicated that this bill will specify in statute that "marriage is a personal relationship arising out of a civil contract between a man and a woman."

The present law involves reference to person and doesn't specify man and woman. Nestande noted that his bill simply "codifies case law dating back to English Common Law."

LINDA VISTA PHARMACY

In these days of medical miracles it's hard to realize that as recently as the 19th century an American President suffered throughout his life from a bullet that could not be removed from his chest. Andrew Jackson, our seventh President, was 39 years old in 1806 when he was wounded in a duel.

Without X-Rays, modern surgical techniques or antibiotics, the doctors of Jackson's time could not locate the slug, remove it nor treat the chronic infection it caused. The wound never healed. Jackson suffered all his life from a condition that would be rountinely handled today.

There's nothing routine about the way we handle your prescription. We always give it the special treatment it deserves when you depend on LINDA VISTA PHARMACY your professional pharmacy!

Hawk Band In Las Vegas Parade

An invitation to the El Dorado High School band and drill team to appear in the Helldorado Parade, will not only give the groups some marching time but a tour of Las Vegas as well.

The excursion was unanimously approved last Monday night by members of the Placentia Unified School District Board of Trustees.

The entourage will leave Saturday, May 14 and arrive at Hoover Dam at 3:30 p.m. for a free tour. The students will be staying at Western High School in Las Vegas, where there are boys and girls gyms, using sleeping bags for facilities.

Dinner that day is scheduled for the Mint Hotel followed by an evening at the Circus. The parade, which is non competitive takes place on Sunday.

Also making the trip will be an adult for each ten students. Students, with the help of their parents, it was noted, have raised the funds needed for the tour. Money making projects included a garage sale, bike-a-thon, gift wrapping and a chili sale. There will be no cost to the district.

"Free" Financial Services?

THE $1,000 MISUNDERSTANDING:

Services aren't free if you have to deposit $1,000 or more. But here are 5 services that are really free at World!

Many institutions talk about free financial services. Then demand a $1,000 minimum balance to qualify.

That's hardly what you'd call free. But our Free World Package really is free.

Our Free World Package gives you five valuable services with no minimum balance requirement! Just open an account and start enjoying all of the following:

1. Free Travelers Checks. Up to $1,000 worth each year.
2. Free Money Orders. Up to five each month.
3. Free Notary Service. A licensed notary on staff.
4. Free Keogh or IRA Trusteeship. No fees for the life of the account.
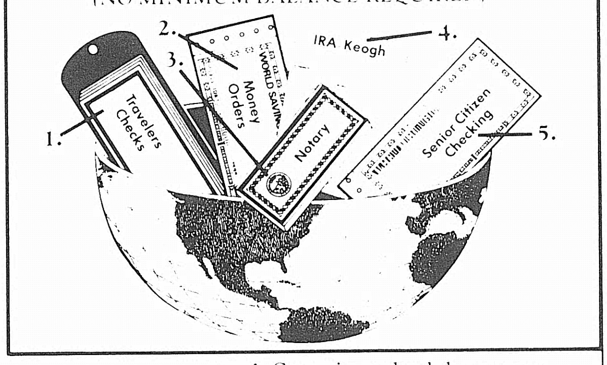
5. Free Senior Citizen Checking. 62 or over, through major statewide banks.

Do you give up anything to get these free services? Not in our World. No bank or savings and loan pays higher interest on insured (to $40,000 or more) savings. And our high interest rates on certificate accounts are guaranteed. Come in and ask how your savings can earn:



5.25%/5.39% to 7.75%/8.06%†

Current Annual Rate	Effective Annual Yield*	Guaranteed Annual Rate	Effective Annual Yield*

*When principal and interest are left in the account and compounded continuously. †6 year minimum term. $1,000 minimum balance. Note: Federal regulations require a substantial interest penalty for early withdrawals from certificates.

There's a Free World Package waiting for you at a nearby World Savings office. Come in now. You'll see—you don't have to be a big depositor to get more out of this World!
